

VillageFax® Corporate Solutions

VillageFax offers the most comprehensive solutions for business-critical information delivery. From individual fax delivery to broadcast distribution to thousands, VillageFax solutions are completely scalable to meet the demands of today's business enterprises.

Any type of data may be processed and distributed, including remittances, invoices, statements, price lists amendments, job sheets etc. Documents may also be automatically routed to individual or group email inboxes, for single transaction processing or for production applications such as purchase orders, event responses, or marketing campaign feedback. For organizations looking to automate the distribution of fax messages, or to integrate these services into existing technology infrastructures, VillageFax solutions provide clients with the optimum in reliability and performance.

Outbound Document Delivery

VillageFax provides a variety of user interfaces which include, web browsers, email clients, ERP and CRM application...virtually any application, platform or operating system. Our interfaces and integration tools are specifically designed for business process efficiency and user productivity for document and information delivery.

High Volume....Broadcast Distribution and Beyond

VillageFax's extensive set of features and leading-edge technology rapidly and securely deliver, receive and manage business-critical fax documents at any volume level.

Connection

VillageFax seamlessly integrates with production fax applications from ERP, CRM or E-Commerce order fulfillment systems. Our cutting edge integration capabilities impact client performance directly, making them stronger, faster, and more competitive in their business environment.

Intelligent Dynamic Information Delivery...

Enterprise Class Performance

Key Benefits:

- Scheduled delivery by time zones increases effectiveness
- Automatic transmission retries eliminate human intervention
- Billing details provided by company, user, and project ID
- Easily manage distribution lists from your desktop
- Import lists from any database or contact manager
- Easily create and import custom cover pages
- Personalized documents for each recipient through fax merge
- Manage delivery priorities
- Toolkits for quick and easy implementation of production applications

